HOLDER 4

1287–1288

Hugh de Brandeston

Transfer:
Conveyance

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: Bartholomew was holding the manor in 1286, and in 1287–8 conveyed the reversion to Hugh de Brandeston, who had married his daughter Margaret.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 5

Dates not recorded

Hugh

Transfer:
Recorded holder

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: Hugh died seised of this manor in or before 1298, when the king proceeded to administer the estate, as his son Henry was then under age.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 6

1315

Osbert Clynton and his wife

Transfer:
Sale

Holding arrangement:
joint

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: In spite of the fact that her interest was limited, she sold the manor in 1315 to Osbert Clynton and his wife, and they conveyed it the same year to John de la Beche, who is returned as its owner in 1316.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 7

1315

John de la Beche

Transfer:
Conveyance

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: In spite of the fact that her interest was limited, she sold the manor in 1315 to Osbert Clynton and his wife, and they conveyed it the same year to John de la Beche, who is returned as its owner in 1316.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 8

Dates not recorded

Thomas

Transfer:
Succession

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: He was succeeded by his son Thomas, then a minor, who died without issue in 1331, when the manor passed to his brother John, then aged sixteen.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 9

1331

John

Transfer: Passed

Holding arrangement:

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: He was succeeded by his son Thomas, then a minor, who died without issue in 1331, when the manor passed to his brother John, then aged sixteen.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 10

Dates not recorded

Andrew de Sackville

Transfer:
Conveyance

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: It seems probable that when this manor and the other estates thus inherited were divided among the three co-heirs Edmund Danvers conveyed his share to Andrew de Sackville, for there is no further reference to any interest in this manor belonging either to him or his heirs.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 11

1365–1366

Ralph de Restwold and Thomas Hancepe

Transfer:
Sale

Holding arrangement:
joint

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: Sir Andrew sold his share in 1365–6 to Ralph de Restwold and Thomas Hancepe, apparently in trust for the latter, who sold it in 1371–2 to Sir Thomas de Coleshill.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 12

1371–1372

Sir Thomas de Coleshill

Transfer:
Sale

Holding arrangement:

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 16

Attested 1428

Richard Merbroke and John Golafre

Transfer:
Recorded possession

Holding arrangement:
joint

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: What happened is uncertain, for no records have been found to trace the descent of these shares during the next fourteen years, but in 1428 we find the manor in the hands of Richard Merbroke and John Golafre, the latter of whom had probably inherited the share of the manor bought by William Bruyly in 1408–9.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 17

1428

William Bruyly

Transfer:
Purchase

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: What happened is uncertain, for no records have been found to trace the descent of these shares during the next fourteen years, but in 1428 we find the manor in the hands of Richard Merbroke and John Golafre, the latter of whom had probably inherited the share of the manor bought by William Bruyly in 1408–9.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 19

1506–1507

Sir Edward

Transfer:
Succession

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: Sir William died on 4 January 1506–7, but it is uncertain whether he was succeeded by his son Sir Edward, who married Frideswide, sister and heir of Francis Viscount Lovel, or by their son John Norreys, who was certainly holding the manor in 1517.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 20

1669

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 21

Dates not recorded

James Norreys

Transfer:
Passed

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: At Sir Edward's death the manor seems to have passed to James Norreys, who would appear to have been another son, and in 1714 he and his wife Mary conveyed the manor to James Close, apparently in trust.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 22

1714

James Close

Transfer:
Conveyance

Holding arrangement:
sole

Narrative / explanation:
Lordship: At Sir Edward's death the manor seems to have passed to James Norreys, who would appear to have been another son, and in 1714 he and his wife Mary conveyed the manor to James Close, apparently in trust.

Relationship to present holder
