Relationship to present holder: Not recorded

10. Thomas Sheldon, Esquire, lord of Abberton Manor in the cited late-eighteenth-century evidence | 1776 - 1798

Transfer: Continuing Sheldon ownership; Thomas Sheldon held the manor in 1776 and with his wife Margaret in 1798.

Holding: Whole manor in 1776; the 1798 source names Thomas and Margaret together but does not state their separate legal shares. / Abberton branch of the Sheldon family / Co-holders: Francis Sheldon and Mary Sheldon, William Sheldon, son of Francis Sheldon, Francis Sheldon, Francis Sheldon and Elizabeth Sheldon

Relationship to present holder: Not recorded

11. Samuel Sheldon alias Lesingham, Esquire, Sheldon landowner and vendor of Abberton Manor | 1798 - 1829

Transfer: Sale of Abberton Manor in 1829 to William Laslett. The source identifies the vendor as Samuel Sheldon alias Lesingham; the relationship between Samuel and the Thomas Sheldon named in 1798 is not established here.

Holding: Whole manor, as vendor of the 1829 sale. / Sheldon family / Co-holders: William Sheldon and Francis Sheldon

Relationship to present holder: Not recorded

12. William Emmerson Kendrick Laslett, Barrister-at-law, Member of Parliament, lord of the manor of Abberton | 1829 - 26 January 1884

Relationship to present holder: Not recorded

13. Ralph Sheldon | 1540 - 1540

Transfer: Ralph Sheldon was lessee of Abberton by 1540. This records a leasehold interest and does not establish freehold or manorial lordship.

Holding: Other / Leasehold interest; precise term and extent not stated.

Relationship to present holder: Not recorded

DETAILED CONVEYANCE & DESCENT

1066 - 1543

Pershore Abbey, the church of St Mary of Pershore, Benedictine abbey

Transfer:

Continuation of the pre-Conquest ecclesiastical holding; the estate was held by Pershore Abbey in 1066 and in Domesday Book in 1086, and remained associated with the abbey until the Dissolution.

Holding arrangement:

sole

Share / interest:

Whole manor or estate as immediate lord, subject to the feudal distinction that Pershore Abbey was also tenant-in-chief in 1086.

Shared holding:

Pershore Abbey

Narrative / explanation:

Domesday records Abberton, under the forms Edbretintune and Edbritone, as a berewick of the estate of Pershore held by the church of St Mary of Pershore. The Domesday evidence identifies Pershore Abbey as tenant-in-chief and immediate lord in 1086. This entry represents the abbey's lordship, not merely an ecclesiastical tenancy or advowson. The end date is approximate and reflects the Dissolution period; the source evidence does not supply a precise date for the final transfer from the abbey.

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 216 January 1544 - 16 January 1544*William Sheldon and Francis Sheldon, Esquire, member of the Sheldon family of Worcestershire and Warwickshire*Transfer:

Royal grant of the manor following the Dissolution of Pershore Abbey; the manor was granted to William Sheldon and Francis Sheldon.

Previous holder:

Pershore Abbey, the church of St Mary of Pershore

Holding arrangement:

joint

Share / interest:

Joint grant to the two Sheldon brothers; the subsequent settlement placed the estate on Francis Sheldon and Mary his wife, with remainders to their children.

Shared holding:

Sheldon family

Narrative / explanation:

Victoria County History states that the manor was granted on 16 January 1544 to William and Francis Sheldon. The same account says that the manor was settled on Francis Sheldon and Mary his wife, with remainder to their children William, Thomas, Francis and Lucy. Ralph Sheldon was then lessee of Abberton and had held it in 1540; his leasehold must not be confused with the later grant of the manor in fee.

HOLDER 316 January 1544 - 1570*Francis Sheldon and Mary Sheldon, Esquire, Sheldon landowner of Abberton*Transfer:

Settlement made after the 1544 grant, placing the manor on Francis Sheldon and Mary his wife, with remainders to their children.

Previous holder:

William Sheldon and Francis Sheldon

Holding arrangement:

joint

Share / interest:

Francis Sheldon and Mary Sheldon held under the settlement; remainders were provided to their children William, Thomas, Francis and Lucy.

Shared holding:

Abberton branch of the Sheldon family

Narrative / explanation:

The source describes the settlement rather than a separate sale or conveyance. It is therefore recorded as a settlement of the 1544 grant, not as an inferred transfer caused merely by family relationship.

HOLDER 424 December 1570 - 1608*William Sheldon, son of Francis Sheldon, Esquire, Sheldon landowner of Abberton*Transfer:

Succession within the settlement after the death of William Sheldon, the elder 1544 grantee, on 24 December 1570; the source states that William, son of Francis, was then of full age and residing at Abberton.

Previous holder:

William Sheldon and Francis Sheldon; subsequently Francis Sheldon and Mary Sheldon under the settlement

Holding arrangement:

sole

Share / interest:

Whole manor as the succeeding holder identified in the VCH descent.

Shared holding:

Abberton branch of the Sheldon family

Narrative / explanation:

The VCH account states that the William Sheldon who received the 1544 grant died on 24 December 1570, when William, son of Francis, was of full age and residing at Abberton. The source treats the latter William as the succeeding holder. The exact legal mechanism is not stated and is not inferred beyond the documented descent.

HOLDER 61625 - 1632*Francis Sheldon and Elizabeth Sheldon, Wife of Francis Sheldon, joint named holder in the cited manor evidence

ABBERTON MANOR

Transfer:

Continuing Sheldon ownership; the manor is documented in their joint names in 1625 and 1632.

Previous holder:

Francis Sheldon

Holding arrangement:

joint

Share / interest:

The source records the husband and wife as holding the manor; the precise legal shares are not stated.

Shared holding:

Abberton branch of the Sheldon family

Narrative / explanation:

The VCH account specifically records Francis Sheldon and his wife Elizabeth holding the manor in 1625 and 1632. This is entered as joint holding because both are named in the manor evidence, without inferring a separate conveyance to Elizabeth.

HOLDER 9

1711 - 1733

Francis Sheldon, Esquire, described in the 1733 Act as a lunatic

Transfer:

Succession after the death of Francis Sheldon in 1711; a Francis Sheldon was holding in 1720, and an Act of Parliament in 1733 dealt with the estate of Francis Sheldon, described as a lunatic.

Previous holder:

Francis Sheldon, died 1711

Holding arrangement:

sole

Share / interest:

Whole manor or estate, subject to statutory trusts relating to debts.

Shared holding:

Abberton branch of the Sheldon family

Narrative / explanation:

The VCH account records a Francis Sheldon holding the manor in 1720. In 1733 an Act was passed for discharging the Abberton estate of Francis Sheldon, a lunatic, from the trusts of a former Act made for payment of his debts and for vesting other estates in trustees. The statutory trusteeship is not treated as a transfer of beneficial ownership unless the source expressly says so.

HOLDER 101776 - 1798*Thomas Sheldon, Esquire, lord of Abberton Manor in the cited late-eighteenth-century evidence*Transfer:

Continuing Sheldon ownership; Thomas Sheldon held the manor in 1776 and with his wife Margaret in 1798.

Previous holder:

Francis Sheldon and the Sheldon estate; intervening descent not fully documented in the available source

Holding arrangement:

sole

Share / interest:

Whole manor in 1776; the 1798 source names Thomas and Margaret together but does not state their separate legal shares.

Shared holding:

Abberton branch of the Sheldon family

Narrative / explanation:

The VCH account records the manor as held by Thomas Sheldon in 1776 and by Thomas and his wife Margaret in 1798. Because the source does not describe a conveyance or state a distinct share for Margaret, the entry records the documented holding without inferring a separate transfer to her.

HOLDER 111798 - 1829*Samuel Sheldon alias Lesingham, Esquire, Sheldon landowner and vendor of Abberton Manor*Transfer:

Sale of Abberton Manor in 1829 to William Laslett. The source identifies the vendor as Samuel Sheldon alias Lesingham; the relationship between Samuel and the Thomas Sheldon named in 1798 is not established here.

Previous holder:

Thomas Sheldon and Margaret Sheldon

Holding arrangement:

sole

Share / interest:

Whole manor, as vendor of the 1829 sale.

Shared holding:

Sheldon family

Narrative / explanation:

The cited VCH-derived account states that the manor and advowson were sold in 1829 by Samuel Sheldon alias Lesingham to William Laslett. A separate nineteenth-century directory gives a less precise account that the Sheldons retained the estate until it passed to William Laslett. The 1829 VCH-derived statement is preferred. No earlier transfer to Samuel is inferred because the available sources do not document it.

Narrative / explanation:

William Laslett acquired Abberton Manor and Hall in 1829 and made Abberton Hall his residence. He is documented as lord of the manor in nineteenth-century heraldic and biographical sources and remained the securely evidenced historical holder until his death on 26 January 1884. The sources examined do not establish a subsequent manor holder with sufficient directness for inclusion.
