Attested 1086

Robert Curteys as a fulling-mill

Transfer:

Recorded holder

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

There was a mill at Westbrook in 1086, which in the 15th century was known as Gosling's Mill, and was held by Robert Curteys as a fulling-mill.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 2

1819

John Archer Houblon

Transfer:

Conveyance

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

The fishing in the Lambourn River seems always to have belonged to the lords of the different manors in this parish, and when under the award of 1819 the Earl of Craven released such of his rights in the manor of Benham Valence as were situated in the parish of Boxford to John Archer Houblon, who was lord of the two other manors, he reserved the rights of fishing which had hitherto belonged to him.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.
