DETAILED CONVEYANCE & DESCENT

HOLDER 1

Dates not recorded

the canons by one of the Lorings

Transfer:

Grant

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

The holding in Chalgrave which became known in the 14th century as the manor of WINGFIELD, in the possession of Dunstable Priory, was probably bestowed upon the canons by one of the Lorings, as it was held of their fee in 1276, but the name of the donor and date of the gift are not on record.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 2

Dates not recorded

William Smith and his son William

Transfer:

Grant

Holding arrangement:

joint

Narrative / explanation:

At the Dissolution the manor escheated to the Crown, by whom it was doubtless granted to William Smith and his son William in 1549, when they obtained the advowson and rectory, and was by them alienated to Thomas Sibley, whose son William conveyed his right in the manor to Thomas Impie in 1569.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.
