DETAILED CONVEYANCE & DESCENT

HOLDER 1

Dates not recorded

Henry de Newburgh Earl of Warwick

Transfer:

Grant

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

Overlordship account 1: It seems probable that this manor was included among the lands granted by Henry I to Henry de Newburgh Earl of Warwick, a son of Roger de Beaumont, and the overlordship remained with the successive Earls of Warwick until the death in 1446 of Henry Beauchamp, created Duke of Warwick in 1444, when his fee here passed with the title to his only daughter Anne, then aged two years.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 2

Dates not recorded

Herman Bishop of Salisbury

Transfer:

Recorded holder

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

Overlordship account 2: The second manor of Winterbourne was held in the time of the Confessor by Herman Bishop of Salisbury, and at the time of the Domesday Survey by Osmund, his successor.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 3

Dates not recorded

Bristec

Transfer:

Recorded holder

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

Overlordship account 3: The third manor was held at the time of the Confessor by Bristec, a free tenant, and in 1086 by Hascoit Musard, who was living as late as 1101–2.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 4

1230

Robert

Transfer:

Passed

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

Overlordship account 3: Ralph was living in 1200, and certainly as late as 1230, but later in the 13th century the overlordship had passed to his son Robert, who had died, leaving an infant son in the custody of the king.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 5

Dates not recorded

Ralph

Transfer:

Passed

Winterbourne

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

Overlordship account 3: Robert's son seems to have died young, and the overlordship passed to Ralph, the second son of the former Ralph.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.

HOLDER 6

Attested 1415

the king

Transfer:

Recorded possession

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

Overlordship account 3: No further mention of this family has been found in connexion with the overlordship of this manor, the further history of which is obscure, but by 1415 it had passed into the hands of the king, who had attached it to his honour of Wallingford.

Relationship to present holder

No published relationship path recorded.
