Shared holding:

Ecclesiastical Commissioners

Narrative / explanation:

John Marius Wilson's Imperial Gazetteer of England and Wales, published in 1870, states that the manor was then held by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. This is the latest securely dated historical statement located that explicitly names an institutional holder of Adisham Manor. No deed, statute, vesting order or other primary instrument establishing the transfer from the Dean and Chapter was found in the present research. A modern local account instead says that ownership continues with the Dean and Chapter, so this entry is retained as a reported later holding with an unresolved institutional succession rather than as a fully proven conveyance.
