DETAILED CONVEYANCE & DESCENT

HOLDER 1

by 1901

Edward Ecroyd, Esquire, Justice of the Peace, lord of the manor of Aiket Gate and Nunclose by 1901.

Transfer:

Accession date and transfer instrument not identified; the 1901 directory records Edward Ecroyd esquire, J.P., of Low House, as lord of the manor in its entry for Aiket Gate and Nunclose.

Previous holder:

Unknown

Holding arrangement:

sole

Narrative / explanation:

This is a securely identified early twentieth-century manorial holding, but the source is a directory rather than a conveyance or estate deed. It establishes Edward Ecroyd's status as lord of the manor at the time of publication, not the date or manner of acquisition. The wording of the entry associates the lordship with the Aiket Gate and Nunclose area; it does not provide a complete description of the manor's boundaries.
