Dates: 19th century; exact birth and death dates not established in the sources consulted

BIOGRAPHY

George Bradley was a financier and coal proprietor who acquired the Ackton Hall estate in 1865, developed colliery interests at Featherstone and Ackton, and later became financially distressed.

NOTES / SOURCES

His ownership of the estate is documented; the separate manorial title is not conclusively distinguished from the freehold estate.

Research sources:

- Fairfield Homes, Featherstone Hall historical account, reporting George Bradley's 1865 purchase of the Ackton estate and citing a deed held by West Yorkshire Archive Service; corroborated by local historical accounts of Ackton Hall.
