William Brent, alias Burston

Evidence status: Unverified

Generated: 15 October 2026 13:36 UTC

Dates: Sixteenth century; exact dates not established

BIOGRAPHY

William Brent, also styled alias Burston in the historical account, received the manor and chapel of Adminton from the Crown in 7 Edward VI, together with specified former Winchcombe Abbey lands.

NOTES / SOURCES

The alias form is retained because it is how the source identifies the grantee.

Research sources:

- Historical account of Adminton in Shakespeare's Homeland, stating that the manor and chapel of Adminton, formerly belonging to Winchcombe Abbey, were granted to William Brent alias Burston in 7 Edward VI; corroborated by British Brick Society Information 109, which describes the Burston family as the post-Dissolution owners.
