Dates: Documented as continuing into the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries; manor court book completed in 1925

BIOGRAPHY

The Gage Estate was the landed estate of the Gage family centred on Firle. East Sussex archival material identifies it as the continuing owner of most of the land in Alciston and preserves a substantial archive of Alciston manorial records.

NOTES / SOURCES

This is an estate-level holding label, not a claim that a modern corporate entity or a particular current individual holds the legal manor.
