BIOGRAPHY

Margaret Lilly was a member of the family that inherited the substantial Aldborough estate after the death of her brother Edmund during the First World War period. She married the Reverend Christopher Lilly, known in the memoir as Kit Lilly, and was associated with Aldborough Hall and the Lilly family estate.

NOTES / SOURCES

The memoir is a family source and should be supplemented with title deeds, probate, or manorial court evidence before treating the inheritance as a fully documented conveyance of the manorial lordship.
