BIOGRAPHY

Nogent-le-Rotrou was a Cluniac religious house in France with English possessions and connections;

Amesbury Priory was a major medieval religious institution in Wiltshire. The present entry concerns their documented ecclesiastical interest in the Aldbourne rectory, not a personal biography.

NOTES / SOURCES

Institutional holding; not a hereditary personal lordship.

Research sources:

- De Nogent Possessions in England, section 28, citing the Victoria County History and related medieval evidence; statement that the rectory of Aldebourne was finally appropriated by 1228.
