Dates: 24 February 1711 4 May 1770

BIOGRAPHY

John Perceval succeeded his father as 2nd Earl of Egmont in 1748 and was a substantial landowner in Ireland and Somerset. The local source records him as lord of Eley or Aley Green and several neighbouring Somerset estates.

NOTES / SOURCES

The source establishes his association with Eley or Aley Green but does not identify the date or legal instrument by which he acquired it.

Research sources:

- Somersetshire Archaeological and Natural History Society, Proceedings, vol. 43, paper on Over

Stowey and the Stoke Courcy records, p. 76; the passage lists John II, Earl of Egmont, as lord of Eley (or Aley Green) and other local estates.
