ABOUT THE MANOR

This ancient lordship, in Gloucestershire is now vested in the trustees of Sir Anselm Guise, the last lord of the manor. A copy of an abstract of title of General Sir John Guise to the lordship of Lassington dated 1848 is available. On this abstract there is endorsed the opinion of counsel confirming that the title is a good one. From General Guise, the lordship passed to his son, Sir William, and from him to his son, Sir Anselm. Further details of the history of this lordship will be available at the auction.
