LORDSHIP / TITLE ASSOCIATIONS

ABOUT THE MANOR

A major feudal honour centred on Arundel in Sussex, comprising lands and lordships held under the lords and later earls associated with Arundel. It should not be treated as a single manor or as identical with the settlement of Arundel.

OWNERSHIP / HOLDER ACCOUNT

The honour was established in the post-Conquest period and was associated successively with the Montgomery, d'Aubigny, Fitzalan and Howard dynasties through inheritance, marriage and descent. The precise legal continuity between the honour, the earldom and the constituent properties requires source verification.

- 1243 - 1267 | John FitzAlan, Lord of Clun and Oswestry | inheritance through marriage | Manor And Title |
