Dates: Active as a Somerset landowner in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries; dates not fully established here

BIOGRAPHY

Thomas Henry Methuen Bailward was a member of the Bailward landed family of Horsington Manor and was identified in early twentieth-century directories as lord of the manor in the Templecombe or Abbas Combe parish.

NOTES / SOURCES

The directory evidence reports the united parish nomenclature, so the exact extent of his holding in the separate Abbas Combe manor requires confirmation from the Bailward deeds.
