Sir John Neville of Chevet

Evidence status: Supported

Generated: 20 October 2026 19:32 UTC

Dates: born by 1488; executed 12 June 1541

BIOGRAPHY

Sir John Neville was a younger son of Sir John Neville of Liversedge and Maud Ryther. He entered royal service, attended Henry VII's funeral in 1509, served in military and administrative capacities, and married Elizabeth Bosville, thereby establishing the Chevet Hall branch. In 1541 he was arrested in connection with the West Riding conspiracy and executed at York after being convicted for failing to disclose the plot. His children were later restored in blood by private Act.
