

TOTTENHILL is a parish and village 2 miles east from Magdalen Road junction station on the Ely and Lynn section of the Great Eastern railway, 6 north from Downham and 6 south from Lynn, in the South Western division of the county, Clackclose hundred and petty sessional division, Downham union and county court district, rural deanery of Fincham (eastern division), archdeaconry of Lynn and diocese of Norwich. The church of St. Botolph, situated about a mile south east from the village, and originally belonging to the hamlet of Westbriggs, is a small building of stone in the Norman and Early English styles, consisting of chancel, nave and an embattled western tower containing one bell: over the south door is a fine Norman arch: the chancel was restored in 1864 by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under the direction of the late Mr. Ewan Christian, architect, and in 1877 the chancel arch was renewed from a design by Mr. Laurie, of Downham: a portion of a well-carved oak bench end was found in the church in 1863, inscribed "Thomas Dux, Ex." and is now in the possession of the family of the Rev. W. H. Henslowe M.A. late vicar (1841-90): there are 150 sittings. The register dates from the year 1679. The living is a vicarage, united in 1871 to that of Wormegay, joint net yearly value £268, including 22 acres of glebe in South Lynn, Watton and Deopham parishes, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Norwich, and held since 1890 by the Rev. Samuel Theodore Leupolt M.A. of Caius College, Cambridge. A new vicarage house near the village was erected in 1892 by a grant of £1,500 from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. Here is a Primitive Leupolt Rev. Samuel Theodore M.A.

The Vicarage
Pattinson Rev. William L.Th.(curate),
Ivy cottage
Whitbread Fredk. Robt. Oakwood ho
COMMERCIAL.
Baker Rt. gro. & bricklyr. Post office
Billen Francis, huntsman to A. E.
H. Birch esq
Boon Charles, farmer, Gravelpit

Boon William, farmer
Chapman Walter, small holder
Emms John, tobacconist
Freeman William, farmer
Hill Charles Wilson, small holder
Horne Thomas Anthony, farmer
Newell Samuel, farmer, West Briggs
Palmer & Boon, gravel merchants
Palmer Frederick James, farmer & cattle dealer, Dairy farm

Pointer & Son, butchers
Rayner Edward John, beer retailer
Riches John, farmer, The Woodlands Rodwell John Panton, miller (wind & steam) & baker, assistant overseer & clerk to the Parish Council & assessor & collector of taxes
Watkins Chas. farmer, Tottenhill row
Wilson Henry, farmer, East hall
Youngs George, Dray & Horses P.H

TOTTINGTON is a parish and village 3½ miles east from Stow-Bedon station, 4 miles south-west from Watton station, both on the Bury, Thetford and Swaffham section of the Great Eastern railway, 8 north from Thetford and 12 west from Attleborough, in the South Western division of the county, hundred, petty sessional division and union of Wayland, county court district of Watton and Attleborough, rural deanery of Breccles, archdeaconry of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich. The church of St. Andrew is a large and ancient edifice of flint in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, nave with clerestory, aisles, south porch and an embattled western tower containing 6 bells: the nave is seated throughout with ancient oak benches, on the back of one of which is carved, "to the memory of Thomas Sutton and his wife, 1636:" the windows are remarkable for their beautiful tracery: in the south wall of the chancel are piscina and sedilia, and there is a piscina in the north aisle: a stone bearing the Mortimer arms, found in the clerestory wall in 1886, has been placed on the wall of the south aisle: the screen, finely carved, is very ancient, and there is a well-preserved brass with effigies of a kneeling female and child to Margaret Pory, 1598: the nave was new roofed and the interior of the church restored in 1886, and it now affords 200 sittings. The

COMMERCIAL.
Herring Robert, grocer, Post office
Herring Wilfred, boot maker & parish clerk

Macro Frederick
Mortimer farm
Macro Geo. carrier & fishmonger
Pearson Thornton Henry, farmer
Rayner John, farmer

TRIMINGHAM is a parish and small village on the sea coast, with a station on the Norfolk and Suffolk branch of the Great Eastern railway, 5 miles south-east from Cromer and 6 north from North Walsham, in the Northern division of the county, hundred and petty sessional division of North Erpingham, union of Erpingham, North Walsham county court district, rural deanery of Repps, archdeaconry and diocese of Norwich. The church of St. John the Baptist is an ancient structure of flint, in the Perpendicular style, consisting of chancel, nave, south porch and a low western tower containing one bell: a fine carved oak screen separates the chancel from the nave: the church was restored in 1859 at a cost of £1,500, and again in 1911-12 at a cost of £250: it affords 200 sittings. The register dates from the year 1748. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £150, including 2 acres of glebe, with residence, in the gift of the Duchy of Lancaster, and held since 1909 by the Rev. Reginald Charles Page M.A. of Clare College, Cambridge. There is a Primitive Methodist chapel, built in 1909. The parish has been much Methodist chapel erected in 1881. The poor's land of 16 acres produces £20 yearly for fuel; Davis's charity of £5 4s. yearly, left in 1747, is distributed in 12 small loaves weekly, 8 for poor widows of Watlington and 4 of Tottenhill. In a gravel pit, opposite the Windmill, several fragments of prehistoric pottery and flint implements have been found; a collection was formed and presented to the King's Lynn Museum by Dr. C. B. Plowright. The trustees of George Coote esq. of Chilton Lodge, Sudbury, who are lords of the manor, Joseph Trueman Mills esq. of Stock Grove, Leighton Buzzard, A. E. H. Birch esq. of Watlington Hall, and Mrs. Birch, of Watlington Hall, are the principal landowners. The soil is sand, gravel and clay; subsoil, the same. The chief crops are wheat, barley, turnips and clover. The area is 1,453 acres of land and 6 of water; rateable value, £1,764; the population in 1911 was 288.

WEST BRIGGS is a hamlet, and was included in this parish during the time the Bishop of Ely was rector and the one church was common to both parishes, but is now reckoned a civil parish with Wormegay.

Parish Clerk and Sexton, Harry Youngs.

Post Office.—Robert Baker, sub-postmaster. Letters received through King's Lynn arrive at 7.15 a.m. & 2.15 p.m. Letter Box cleared at 5.40 p.m.; sundays, arrive at 7.15 a.m.; dispatched at 11.50 a.m. Watlington is the nearest money order & telegraph office, 2 miles distant

The children of this parish attend the school at Wormegay register dates from the year 1711. The living is a vicarage, with Sturston annexed, net yearly value £59, including 11 acres of glebe, with residence, in the gift of Lord Walsingham, and held since 1911 by the Rev. Charles Kent M.A. of Christ's College, Cambridge, who is also vicar of Thompson and rector of and resides at Merton. The great tithes of Tottington are held in trust for the Chigwell Grammar School, Essex. Lord Walsingham is lord of the manor and sole landowner. The soil is of a sandy character, with clay and marl subsoil, and is studded with plantations of various ages and acreage. The chief crops are wheat and barley. The area is 3,231 acres of land and 13 of water; rateable value, £1,468; the population in 1911 was 209.

Parish Clerk, Wilfred Herring.

Post Office.—Robert Herring, sub-postmaster. Letters through Thetford, arrive at 4 a.m.; dispatched at 8.30 p.m.; Sunday, arrive at 4 a.m.; dispatched 6.30 p.m. Watton is the nearest money order & telegraph office, 4 miles distant

Public Elementary School (mixed), erected in 1849, rebuilt 1910, for 105 children; average attendance, 67; Miss Ella Grant, mistress

Carrier.—George Macro, to Thetford, mon

William, farmer, Reading Room (Ronald Balls, sec)
Wace Leonard John, farmer
Wright John, cart & wagon builder, blacksmith, wheelwright & undrtrk diminished by the encroachments of the sea, and since 1840 two farmhouses have been washed away: there were several landslips during the year 1868, part of the land then absorbed being glebe, and further incursions took place in 1891-2 and 1903-4; the groynes constructed by Thomas Fowell Buxton esq. along the beach at his own expense to prevent the recurrence of these encroachments have also been washed away. Lord Suffield P.C., G.C.V.O., K.C.B., V.D. is lord of the manor. John Henry Buxton esq. of Easneye, Ware, Herts, is the principal landowner. The soil is mixed; subsoil, clay and gravel. The chief crops are wheat, oats and barley. The area is 566 acres of land and 79 of foreshore; rateable value, £1,218; the population in 1911 was 250.

Parish Sexton, Edward Allard.

Post, M. O. & T. Office.—Miss Mary Randell, sub-postmistress. Letters through North Walsham arrive at 7.20 a.m. & 3.40 p.m. & are dispatched at 10.30 a.m. & 5.40 p.m.; no Sunday delivery