

Fellowes Rev. Charles, M.A., J.P. [vicar],
Vicarage
Merry Francis William, esq
Baxter Robert, market gardener
Boyce Francis, maltster & farmer
Burgess Thomas, farmer, Woodton farm
Cushing Charles, shopkeeper & carrier
Cutts William, Duke's Head inn, farmer, artificial manure, & cart & mill grease manufacturer

Dunt Robert, blacksmith
Gooch Jas. grocer & draper, & postmaster
Harris George, farmer
Hazell Harriett (Mrs.), Crown
Heard George, farmer
Huggins Thomas, farmer
Jeffries Robert, farmer
Martins George, beer retailer
Merry Francis William, surgeon
Mitchell John, shopkeeper

Nicholls Anderlinda (Mrs.), milliner & dress maker
Parfitt Robert, butcher
Pye William, farmer
Riches Geo. shoe maker & parish clerk
Sayer James, vermin destroyer
White Wm. carpenter & wheelwright
Whiting Samuel, boot & shoe maker
Whiting Samuel, jun. market gardener
Wilson Philip, grocer & draper

SHOTTESHAM ST. MARY (or Low SHOTTESHAM) comprises the parishes of St. Mary, St. Martin, and St. Botolph, and is situated 5 miles south from Norwich, in the South-Eastern division of the county, Henstead hundred and union, Norwich county court district, rural deanery of Brooke, archdeaconry of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich. The church of St. Mary is a small flintstone building, in the Perpendicular style; it has nave, chancel, tower, and 1 bell. The register dates from the year 1687. St. Martin's and St. Botolph's churches have been in ruins for several centuries: their benefices, with the rectory of St. Martin, were consolidated with Shottesham All Saints soon after the Reformation; the Rev. Charles Fellowes, M.A., of St. John's College, Cambridge, is the incumbent. A small school was established in 1852 by Mrs. Fellowes. The poor share some of the charities left for All Saints, £4 being left

Fellowes Robert, esq. J.P. Shottesham prk
Boyce George, plumber, painter & glazier Brighton Henry, thrashing machine proprietor

Crane William, miller
Eastall Zephaniah, carpenter
Hazle James, farmer
Ives Robert, farmer

Lee Walter, farmer
Martin James, shoe maker
Raven William Beverley, farmer, Old
Hall

SHOULDHAM is a parish and neat and pleasant village, 6 miles north-east from Downham market, 9 south from Lynn, and 10 west from Swaffham, in the Western division of the county, Clackclose hundred, Downham union and county court district, rural deanery of Fincham, archdeaconry of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich. The church of All Saints, which stands on a commanding height, at the east end of the village, is a neat edifice, consisting of a nave and chancel, and a square tower containing 4 bells: it contains a handsome marble monument of the late Thomas Allen, Esq., bearing a finely executed figure of Faith: a new and handsome chancel has just been erected, at the expense of Sir Thomas Hare, Bart. The register dates from the year 1656. The living is a vicarage (not in charge), consolidated with that of Shouldham Thorpe, joint yearly value £120, in the gift of Sir Thomas Hare, Bart., who is the improprator of all the tithes; and held by the Rev. William Maxey Allen, M.A., of Christ's College, Cambridge. Here is a National school for boys and girls, built in 1866, with an average

Allen Rev. Stephen, D.D. Hall
Allen Rev. William Maxey, M.A. [vicar]
Catton Robert Thomas, esq. Melrose
Humphry Mrs
Liddelow Mrs

COMMERCIAL.
Adams Jacob, rope maker
Adams William, rope maker
Barber Charles, beer retailer
Baxter James, carpenter
Betts Henry, Chequers
Bird Josiah, farmer, Abbey
Bowen Josiah, shoe maker

Buckenham John, shopkeeper & bricklayer
Church James, farmer
Coe Henry, coal dealer
Craft Robert, beer retailer
Dane Robert, bricklayer
Drake Robert, blacksmith
Dye Frederick, baker
Easter Mary Ann (Mrs.), farmer
Edwards Robert, farmer
Edwards William, shoe maker
Hawes Charles, beer retailer & carrier
Hovell Robert, shoe maker
Humphry John, farmer

Lemmon Charles, farmer
Liddelow William A. merchant
Pleasance Charles, Rampant Horse, & butcher
Pollard James, miller
Preston Harvey, King's Arms, & carrier
Proctor William, carpenter
Proctor William S. farmer, Heath farm
Selby Charles James, grocer & draper & postmaster
Starne Peter, blacksmith & shopkeeper
Ward William, tailor & shopkeeper
Youngs John, plumber, glazier & painter

SHOULDHAM THORPE is a parish and straggling village, 5 miles north-east from Downham Market station, and 9 south from Lynn, in the Western division of the county, Clackclose hundred, Downham union and county court district, rural deanery of Fincham, archdeaconry of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich. The church of the Virgin Mary is a small neat stone building, with a nave and chancel: it has an open turret with 2 bells. The register dates from the year 1558. The living is a vicarage, with Shouldham annexed, joint yearly value £120, in the gift of Sir Thomas Hare, Bart., the improprator of all the tithes,

Bowen Robert, shoe maker
Bowen Robert, jun. shoe maker
Brackenbury William Thorpe, farmer
Chapman Thomas, butcher
Claydon William, farmer
Cork William, shoe maker

Cross John, Gate
Dane Samuel, bricklayer & shopkeeper
Easter Thomas, farmer
Flatt William, Two Brewers, wheelwright & blacksmith, Fodderston Gap
Gamble John, farmer

Harrison John, farmer
Hodgkinson William, farmer
Muffett John, butcher
Pilgrim Maurice, farmer
Watson James, beer retailer & shopkeeper

SHROPHAM is a parish, 10 miles north from Thetford, and 3 north-by-west from Eccles Road station, in the Western division of the county, Wayland union, hundred of Shropby T. Bransby yearly in 1730, and Eliza Bayspool, in 1711, left 20s. yearly, and Miss A. Fellowes, in 1817, left £50 to be invested in Three per Cent. Stock. Shottesham Park is the beautiful seat of Robert Fellowes, Esq., J.P.: the park comprises about 400 acres, well wooded, and extends down to the river Tas: the house is a modern structure, built on the site of the ancient hall, which was formerly the seat of the D'Oyley family. Robert Fellowes, Esq., is lord of the manor and the principal landowner. The soil is light and sandy; subsoil, the same. The area is 1,910 acres, rated at £2,763 12s. 6d., and the population in 1861 was 369. The chief crops are wheat, oats, barley and turnips.

Parish Clerk, George Riches.
Letters from Norwich, through Shottesham All Saints.
Brooke is the nearest money order office
Parish School, Miss Mary Whiley, mistress

attendance of 100. There are chapelst or Wesleyans, Methodist Reformers, and Primitive Methodists. The charities are of £35 yearly value. Two large fairs for cattle are held yearly, on September 19th and October 11th. Sir Thomas Hare, Bart., is lord of the manor. The principal landowners are Sir Thomas Hare, Bart., and the Rev. Stephen Allen, D.D. The soil is loam and clay; subsoil, chalk. The chief crops are wheat, barley, roots and turnips. The population in 1861 was 727; and the area is 3,888 acres.

POST OFFICE.—Charles James Selby, receiver. Letters arrive from Downham Market at 8.30 a.m.; dispatched at 5 p.m. The nearest money order office is at Downham Market

National School, Miss Hannah Pickersgill, mistress; Miss Rebecca Hawes, assistant teacher

CARRIERS TO LYNN.—Harvey Preston & Charles Hawes, tuesday, thursday & saturday

and held by the Rev. William Maxey Allen, M.A., of Christ's College, Cambridge, who officiates at both churches. There are chapels for the Wesleyans, Primitive Methodists, and Methodist New Connexion. The charities are of £20 yearly value. Sir Thomas Hare, Bart., is lord of the manor and principal landowner. The soil is rich loam; subsoil, clay and sand. The chief crops are wheat and barley. The population in 1861 was 298, and the area is 1,430 acres.

Parish Clerk, John Muffett.
Letters through Downham Market, which is the nearest money order office ham, county court district of Attleborough, rural deanery of Rockland, archdeaconry of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich. This village gives name to the hundred, and was